

THE DAILY APPEAL.

SATURDAY..... OCTOBER 20, 1858.

Rev. R. BROWNE, Jr., will preach on Sabbath next at Mrs. Bayan's School Room, corner Elmwood and Eads streets.

Corrected. It was Capt. GARRETT, of the night police, not Capt. THOMAS, who arrested SHORT and WILMOTTS on Thursday.

We were pleased yesterday to meet with our old friends and associates, Mr. W. H. COOPER, Mr. J. C. COOPER, and Mr. COOPERSON, at the home of Mr. COOPER after a shooting of some one or two years, spent in the Eastern cities.

The Buckeyes.—The members of this troupe leave this morning on the Seven for New Orleans. They buy, won themselves a large circle of friends and admirers in Memphis.

Memphis Director.—This week J. F. MILLER closes up canvassing for the Director, and the book is now ready to the press without delay. Persons having cards to mail, may do so with the intention of the Director, much less no time in attending to the business.

Cafe W. M. DELAY, of Missouri.—That prominent citizen of Memphis, who distinguished himself as one of the gallant Mississippian Riders, the plains of Buena Vista passed through our city yesterday on his return to his home of Oregon.

The sales of real estate made by Col. LOCKE this fall show a fair increase in price, notwithstanding the stringency of the money market. Bales of lots on Main and Union roads, or yesterday, were not largely attended, but the property went off at fair, if not full price.

Criminal Court.—This Court during the whole of yesterday was again occupied with the case of MACKELL, for killing SAWERS. Judge BROWN was the presiding justice; he was not through at the closing of the Court, however. The case will go to the jury to-day.

Prominent Cotton.—Sam MUSSIE was awarded the premium for one bale of the fine cotton exhibited at the Agricultural Fair in White County, Ark. The cotton was sent to the fair by Mr. COOPERSON and consigned to Mr. GALT, Esq., cotton factor, No. 17 Front Row, and sold by him on the 27th inst. for the very liberal price of 15 cents per pound.

We learn that our old friend, Isaac PHILLIPS, who has for a number of years been exclusively engaged in the foundry and manufacturing business in this city, designs making New Orleans his future home. He has large experience, and is a thorough practical business man, and as such we most cheerfully wish him the favor of the press and citizens of the Crescent City.

Musician Gauvin.—This distinguished performer will again appear before the public of Memphis to-night, it is two of his popular character. The management have made up a very attractive Saturday night bill—Paterno, and Catherine and Patrice. With two such pieces, and with so great a master of the historical art to present them, the Gauvin must be crowed.

Photographs, Ambrotypes, &c.—A new studio has been opened to the public in the rear of the Standard Hotel, by F. M. VASSALLO.

STAR GALLERY.—No. 262 East side of Main-st., Two doors North of Clark's Marble Block. The enlarged gallery will open to the exhibition and varieties of Memphis, to call at the studio, and to view the collection of pictures in this fascinating art. Call and send address to the Auctioneer, informs us that the sale will take place at the end of October.

CHAS. O. TAYLOR.—The modes of dress of which are easily to discern, and presents the most pleasing effect.
